

Homework

Children are expected to

- Read their reading book, preferably daily and this should be recorded in their diaries.
- Practise their spellings for a test every Thursday.

English

Reading scheme – Oxford Reading Tree

Phonics – using Phonicsplay scheme

Grammar

Narrative – Traditional Tales

Poetry – Pattern and Rhyme

Non-fiction – Recounts and diary writing

Word detectives

Religious Education

Belonging – Christian Baptism and Hindu Jatakarma

Giving something up for love – Christian Easter

Walnut Class

Spring Term 2018

Maths

Number and place value

Mental addition and subtraction

Geometry: properties of shapes

Measurement – money and time

Mental multiplication and division

Statistics

Art

Painting - landscapes

Computing

Let's create

Design and Technology

Making Tudor Houses

Physical Education

Dance – Tudor dance

Gymnastics - travelling with control and balance

Games

Humanities

Tudors and Stuarts

We will learn about Henry VII, Henry VIII and Elizabeth I. We will link Tudor buildings to our local area. We will move on to the Stuart times and learn about the events of the Great Fire of London and look at the diary of Samuel Pepys.

Science

Our changing world – plants

Our changing world – animals

Our changing world – seasons

Everyday Materials

Looking at Animals

Music

Using percussion instruments to develop understanding of rhythm and following improvised notation.

PSHE

Getting on and falling out