

Agenda for the 4th Whole School Council Meeting

25th January 2023

Welcome and introductions	Combined notes from meeting
Discussion for today Today we are focussing on Planning the World Book Day ready for Friday 3rd March 2023 This year the theme for our World Book Day is 'Fairy Tales and Nursery Rhymes'. Help us to plan the best World Book Day ever!!!! Complete these tasks in your meeting: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Mixed age or class groups? Which activities that you would like to do during the day? What sort of food or drink would be good to have on the day? Do we want to invite an author to sell their books to the children during the day? How can we make the day extra special? If you've got time: Design a poster advertising your perfect World Book Day.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Mixed age or class groups? Each group voted in favour of Mixed Age groups Which activities that you would like to do during the day? A book reading group Themed artwork Designing book covers Making themed cupcakes, biscuits and gingerbread figures Themed sports Making our own rhymes and putting music to them Creating characters and acting out a play Egg and spoon races Do some freeze frames of well-known stories Making a gingerbread house! Create a trail through the wildlife garden Macaroni Art What sort of food or drink would be good to have on the day? Pizza Chocolates Pancakes Donuts Hot cross buns Sausages Do we want to invite an author to sell their books to the children during the day? Overwhelmingly the vote was yes, with preference given to: David Walliams Jeff Kinney Roald Dahl (could be a little tricky) JK Rowling Liz Pichon Arianna Solieri How can we make the day extra special? Fireworks Fairy Tale obstacle races Watching Shrek Popcorn party Best costume competition Making our own book
Issue for next Council: Developing the Wildlife area	